Thou all embracing! Thou on thy bosom Foldest thy child! Sleeping I lay In a fever-dream; Thou earnest hither With healing, balm. Streamest divinely, With smile most beaming, Through the wretched And lonely cell, Lifting the veil From the fetter d mind Of the sick one, as sheaths Of buds are broken. Over high towers And long slant roofs, Through thickest foliage, Makest thy way, And swimmest caressing, Thou the great swayer! Around my knees, And on my heart. At earth s banquets I have scarce rejoie d; The sheet of paper on scribbled in pencil lay on Edwin had left him he All my delight was Kipeu d by thee. The rosy fruits here Whose juices cool, And here the white bread Whose strength grows mine; Ah! and the dear Sole sweetest maid. Of the smooth fair hair,...
