Face to Face: A Poetry Collection

By Julie Cadwallader-Staub

Cascadia Publishing House, United States, 2010. Paperback.
Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Parker J. Palmer, author of A Hidden Wholeness, of Let Your Life Speak, and of The Courage to Teach says that I read a lot of poetry, but rarely do I read poems so elegant in their simplicity, so profound in their humanity. I read many accounts of great love and great loss, but rarely do I see suffering explored as honestly and hopefully as it is here. The faith that shines through these poems--so powerfully that it renews the reader's faith--is neither vague nor pious. It is bone-deep faith, a phrase that stands in paradoxical tension with the fact that bone cancer took Julie Cadwallader-Staub's beloved Warren from her and their children, leading to this painful and redemptive journey in language and life. Jay Parini, author of The Art of Subtraction: New and Selected Poems, sees this poetry as full of what Julie Cadwallader-Staub calls bright blasts of truth. And Julie Salamon, author of Hospital and of Facing the Wind, believes that While death hovers over this fine collection, life and love are...
