Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Our New Interests: An Address at the University of California, on Charter Day, March 23, 1900 At the celebration of Charter Day, the President of the University, Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, made the following remarks in introducing the Honorable Whitelaw Reid, Editor of the New York Tribune, who delivered an address on Our New Interests: We are to-day assembled here in recognition of the pious devotion to public causes which laid the foundations of this University. Out of the harsh struggle with nature, out of the fierce rivalry of man with man, issued forth, here among the mines and fields, the higher consciousness that we are members one of another, and that man liveth not by bread alone. Out of the eater came forth meat, out of the strong came forth sweetness. The largest public spirit has always, in the history of men, sprung from the soil where individual force and aggressiveness have been at their highest tension. Along the route of commercial empire, as it advances from people to people, locate themselves the universities,...
