German Meals. Women and Men. Tausigs Teaching. Tausig Abandons his Conservatory. Dresden. Kullak. Berlin, July 23, 1870. Just now the grand topic of course is this dreadful war that has just been declared between Prussia and France,, and everybody is in the wildest state of excitement over it. It broke out so very suddenly that it is only just one week since it has been decided upon, and ever since, the drafting has been going on, and the streets are filled with regiments and with droves of horses, cannon, and all the implements of war. The trains are going out all the time packed with soldiers, and the railroad stations are the constant scene of weeping women of all classes, come to see the last of their dear ones. There is such a storm of indignation against Napoleon that one hears nothing but curses against him. I am entirely on the German side, and am anxious to see the result, for between two such great nations, and with so much at stake, it will be a tremendous struggle. We are promised a holiday soon, when I shall have a let-up from practicing, and only practice three hours a day, instead of five or six. Dont think I am making extraordinary progress because I practice so much. I find that the strengthening and equalizing of the fingers is a terribly slow process, and that it takes much more time to make...
