It is intended principally as an annex to the Home on Franklin Street, where young business women have comfortable board and lodging for a very small sum per week. Many of them this summer have thoroughly enjoyed a vacation at the Rest Home where the beautiful scenery and healthgiving air make the place a natural sanitarium. Other guests are taken at $5.00 per week, particulars at 1424 Franklin Street. The Rest Home has been furnished through the gifts of friends--suitable donations, to add to the comfort of the girls, are still acceptable. The Illinois Federation of Women s Clubs has created a department of domestic science. They ask that the first effort of club women be given to the home, and urge the studr of architecture and sanitation. Also they recommend that the clubs endeavor to introduce cooking and sewing into all public schools. The ninth annual meeting of the National Household Economic Association will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., October 15-17, 1901. There is much interest manifested in the work of this association. The president, Mrs. Linda Hull Larned, will address the State Federation of Ohio in October, and is booked as far ahead as April, as she will then talk in Colorado and Nebraska. A country woman s club has been formed at Lapeer, Mich., chiefly for farmer s wives. The women got the use of two vacant rooms in the court house, and...
